

The instant weather and traffic is a very valuable service that I pay to have as a tool in my truck driving job. Not only does it save me time by getting traffic info, but this week it really helped keeping me out of the storms in texas. Its a service that we choose to pay for, so I cant see how the NAB has any bussiness trying to stop it at all. XM radio is a great thing and I guess a threat to some.